

ReelAbilities: NY disabilities film festival is now accepting submissions for its third edition, to take place in multiple locations throughout the NY metropolitan area in 2011.

The festival is looking for films by and about people with disabilities that explore, discuss and celebrate the diversity of our shared human experience.

Films that have been widely/commercially released in NY prior to February 2011 are not eligible for submission.

Screeners in DVD format, along with a signed submission form should be mailed to:
